IN BRIEF, STAY CLOSE TO THE "TRUTH", SO AS TO TEST THE REACTION OF THE APPARATUS TO A PERFECT SIMULATION. BUT YOU WON'T SUCCEED: THE WEB OF ARTIFICIAL SIGNS WILL BE INEXTRICABLY MIXED UP WITH REAL ELEMENTS (A POLICE OFFICER WILL REALLY SHOOT ON SIGHT; A BANK CUSTOMER WILL FAINT AND DIE OF A HEART ATTACK; THEY WILL REALLY TURN THE PHONEY RANSOM OVER TO YOU).

IN BRIEF, YOU WILL UNWITTINGLY FIND YOURSELF IMMEDIATELY IN THE REAL, ONE OF WHOSE FUNCTIONS IS PRECISELY TO DEVOUR EVERY ATTEMPT AT SIMULATION, TO REDUCE EVERYTHING TO SOME REALITY: THAT'S EXACTLY HOW THE ESTABLISHED ORDER IS, WELL BEFORE INSTITUTIONS AND JUSTICE COME INTO PLAY."

Nation Sets Its Sights on Building Sane Economy

True Cost Tax, Salary Caps, Trust-Busting Top List

By T. VERBEN

The President has called for swift passage of the Safeguards for a New Economy (S.A.N.E.) bill. The stimulus economic package includes a federal minimum wage, mandatory "True Cost Accounting," a phased withdrawal from complex financial instruments, and other measures intended to improve life for ordinary Americans. (See highlights box on Page A10.) He also repeated earlier calls for passage of the "Ban on Lobbying" bill currently making its way through Congress.

Treasury Secretary Paul Krugman stressed the importance of the bill. "Markets make great servants, terrible masters, and absurd religions," said Krugman, quoting Paul Hawken, an advocate of corporate responsibility and author of "Reinvent Us: How the Long-Haul Movement in the World Came into Being and Why No One Saw It Coming."

"At this point, the market is our leader and our religion. No wonder the median standard of living has been declining so much for so long."

Krugman said that the new Treasury bill seeks to ensure the prosperity of all citizens, rather than simply supporting large corporations and the wealthy. "The market is supposed to serve us. Unfortunately, we have ended up serving the market. That's very bad."

Such as Roosevelt, after the Great Depression, put the brakes on CEO wages and irresponsible banking practices, administration officials claim that today we need to aim at the industry that has caused such chaos and misery.

"The building blocks of post-World War II American middle-class prosperity have all been swept away," said House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, who initially op-

Troops to Return Immediately

By JUDIE SHAPIRO

WASHINGTON — Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom were brought to an unceremonious close today with a quiet announcement by the Department of Defense that troops would be home within weeks.

"This is the best news we can put on the most unfortunate adventure in modern American history," Defense spokesman Kevin Shes said of a special joint session of Congress. "Today, we can finally enjoy peace — not the peace of the brave, perhaps, but at least peace."

As U.S. and coalition troops withdraw from Iraq and Afghanistan, the United Nations will move in to perform peacekeeping duties and aid in rebuilding. The U.S. will be responsible for keeping the two countries stable, coordinating the rebuilding of hospitals, schools, highways, and other infrastructure, and overseeing upcoming elections.

The Department of the Treasury confirmed that all U.S. dues owed by the U.S. were paid as of this morning, and that money previously earmarked for the war would be sent directly to the U.N.'s Iraq Oversight Body.
